

The Trinitarian

OCTOBER 2015

BREWSTER, NEW YORK

Pastoral Reflections—Faith @ Work

When you think about God, faith, or religion, does a particular place come to mind? When we use the word “church,” we do often think about our church building – we go to church. In many places, people’s faith is so tied to a building that they cannot imagine being the church without having that place to go to where they attend worship, participate in bible studies, attend meetings, and the like.

Theoretically, we know that We Are the Church—that church is not a building or a place. We are the Church as we go out into the world, as we are sent forth from worship into our day to day lives.

But is your job, your school, your home, the dance studio, soccer field... are they Church too?

If we begin to expand our understanding of church even beyond “where two or three are gathered in my name, there I am in the midst of them” (Matthew 18:20) then we can see all the places and ways that God is working in our midst. Church can be a verb as well as a noun. Church is when and where God is found. Not a place, but the way in which God is on the loose in the world.

God works in, through, and around us every day. God is with us wherever we are, whomever we are with, and whatever we are experiencing. God is offering hope, love, and compassion in big and small ways. In the midst of the brokenness and hurting of this world, God is healing and bringing help to all people.

As a pastor, I don’t always have the same opportunities as you to experience God’s movement in many of the places and times that you find yourself. You are out in the world being the Church in profound ways. I would like to be invited into your lives—be it your work, school, or home—to see what God is up to in your life. If you are willing for me to visit with you, please let me know. If you have questions about how this might work, give me a call. Think of it as a kind of “bring your pastor to work” experience.

Peace in Christ,
Pastor Jen

COMMUNITY WELLNESS PROGRAM

Adults Need Shots Too!

Sunday, Oct 4
2-4 pm, Fellowship Hall

This health talk will cover vaccines recommended for adults that can protect adult health. Information about vaccine side effects, safety, where you can get shots, and insurance coverage will be shared. A nurse from the Putnam County Department of Health is presenting and will be available to answer your questions. This is part of a community wellness program hosted by the Trinity Lutheran Church. Refreshments will be served.

Names for All Saints Sunday

The Christian community will celebrate All Saints Sunday on Sunday, November 1, 2015. On that day, at both services, we will remember by name those for whom services of Christian burial have been conducted during the past year, since last All Saints Sunday (Nov 2, 2014). We will also read the names of loved ones from our Trinity families. If there is a name you would like on this list, a person who has entered the Church triumphant since last All Saints, please contact the church office by October 23rd with his or her name, relationship to you, and date of passing.

We give thanks for the communion of Saints—the gathering of God’s people from every place and time, in this world and the next.

“Rest eternal grant them oh Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them.”

Faith @ Home

- What is your favorite part of God's creation?
- What is the most unusual or even strange animal or thing that God has created?

On Sunday, September 13th, I gave the children Fimo clay to use God's gift of creativity given to us to make their own creation. After creating it (and baking it), they were invited to bring it back and share with us. Extra packets of clay are on the Faith @ Home table in the narthex.

Use this as an activity at home, reading parts of chapters 1 & 2 in Genesis. Talk about all the different things that God has created. Think about places or things in God's creation that are broken, hurting, or in need of help or repair.

Say a prayer of thanks to God for all that God has created. Pray a prayer of help for all those places where God's creation is suffering or in need of help.

Narrative Lectionary

Over the past few years, we have used a different cycle of readings for our Sunday morning worship. It is called the Narrative lectionary, which highlights the overarching biblical story with a concentration in one of the four Gospels (this year, we have readings from the Gospel of Mark). Each month, we will include the readings for the month if you want to look ahead or catch up if you have missed any (I've included September's readings in case you missed those).

Readings for September/October

Sept. 13th: (Garden of Eden) Genesis 2:4b-25 (Mark 1:16-20)

Sept. 20th: (Isaac born to Sarah) Genesis 18:1-15; 21:1-7 (Mark 10:27)

Sept. 27th: (Jacob wrestling with God) Genesis 32:22-30 (Mark 14:32-36)

Oct. 4th: (Moses and God's name) Exodus 1:8-14; 3:1-15 (Mark 12:26-27a)

Oct. 11th: (Ten Commandments) Deuteronomy 5:1-21; 6:4-9 (Mark 12: 28-31)

Oct. 18th: (Ruth & Naomi) Ruth 1:1-17 (Mark 3:33-35)

Oct. 25th (David anointed as king): 2 Samuel 5:1-5; 6:1-5; Psalm 150 (Mark 11:8-10)

Also, if you would like to use daily lectionary readings, you can find them at:

http://www.workingpreacher.org/narrative_faqs.aspx (you can also import them to your online calendar). If you would like a paper copy, we will make them available in the church office and narthex.

Stewardship—Harvests

Fall is the season of the final harvests for the year. We watch the final growth spurts of squash, pumpkins, and gourds. As the air gets cooler and the seasons change, we are mindful of all the different kinds of “harvests” in our lives. We can think of the various milestones that we encounter as harvests, such as: children going to school, a new job, home or relationship, retirement, and the like.

As we move past these milestones, as we experience a new kind of harvest, we find that we develop new gifts, abilities, and insights about ourselves and the world around us. Reflect on examples from your own life—what changed in your understandings and perspectives when you experienced a new milestone?

For example: when you learned to drive a car—

How did your awareness change when you thought about moving from place to place?

How did your attention grow when you saw other drivers or when your car made an unusual sound?

Our faith and relationship with God yields different “harvests” as we learn, grow, and experience new perspectives.

In the hymn “We Plow the Fields and Scatter” (#681), we sing in the refrain:

“all good gifts around us are sent from heaven above.

We thank you, Lord, we thank you, Lord, for all your love.”

In another hymn, “We Are an Offering” (#692), we sing:

all that we have,

all that we are,

all that we hope to be, we give to you.”

We are given a new perspective as we look at our lives and all that we have experienced. When we view our lives as a blessing from God, our understanding of our possessions, our relationships, our time, and abilities can be seen as gifts from God. When we reflect upon these gifts, our desire to use them wisely and faithfully expands. This is a harvest of our faith.

As our conversations about stewardship begin to expand this fall, we pray that our understandings of the gifts that God has given us will bear new fruits. As we look at the fullness of our lives and give thanks for all of our blessings, may we examine the ways in which God calls us to faithfully care for and use these gifts.

Transportation

Volunteers are needed to transport three ladies to and from church on Sunday mornings. These ladies live at the Plaza at Clover Lake, Fair St., Patterson and would like to attend church on a fairly regular basis (the 10:45 AM service is more convenient for them). I am willing to coordinate with them and will take an active part in picking them up and returning them. However, I would appreciate some help. One of these ladies is a long-time member of Trinity, Helga Whalen, and she misses church service. Please consider taking part in this outreach service. I will have a sign-up sheet for volunteers in the Narthex; my phone number is 845-277-8012 if you have questions. Thank you, Kathie Ruhs

Faith Formation for Adults

AFFIRMATION AND ADULT FAITH FORMATION is offered between services (9:45-10:30 AM). If you are interested in attending the adult classes and will need child care, it will be provided as we find out the need. Please let us know if you will need this on the sign up sheet in the narthex.

Faith Formation Series – What the Heck is Emerging Ministry?

Join this five week series of talks, or maybe more if I pontificate too much, to explore one of the new directions that some Christian churches are taking as they try to break out of the general malaise that is affecting our faith today. We will talk about the emerging landscape of the future in which the church will live (tomorrow's world), the church's gathered and gathering community of today (who we are and who will join us), the postmodern "whateverism" form tomorrow's church will take (lot of good ideas to talk about here), and the mobile leadership to get us there (think Jonah's trip to Nineveh). Don Icken

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS BIBLE STUDY (7:00-8:00 pm) All are welcome to join us. (Does not meet Wednesdays when there is a council meeting)

If your student plans on attending Koinania the following weekend, the 23-25th for the Love Out Loud retreat, please let us know by September 30th. This weekend will be $85 per person.

Also a reminder that our Halloween Dance will be held on Friday, October 30th, 7-11 PM, followed by a lock in.

Sunday School October News

Welcome back, welcome back! As we are settling into our new SCS year and trying another variation of timing and program, we continue to enjoy all the children's bright & shining faces as we start again. If you haven't sent in your registration, it's never too late—it can be mailed in, dropped off in the office, or given to me on a Sunday. The third graders received their Bibles on September 20th and on Sunday October 18th you can see what they've learned from their Bible Study classes with Carol Ann Lutz at the 8:30 am service. Then on Sunday 10/25/15 we will have our annual Reformation Sunday Festival and then our annual pumpkin painting between services.

Assisting Ministers, Readers, and Ushers NEEDED

Trinity is blessed to have a number of people who enrich our worship services by acting as ushers and assisting ministers—but we need more help in those areas. Do you think you might be called to give a little of your time to serve in one of these roles? It's not difficult. It doesn't require a big commitment of time. You come to worship anyway, so why not think about participating in a new way!

Please keep this ministry in your prayers and consider it in your heart. If you have questions about what's involved, speak with Mary Beth Commisso. If you'd like more information, contact Mary Beth Commisso, Dawn Morello, or Pastor Jen.

Altar Flowers 2015
