Pastoral Reflections Savior of the Nations, come

Moving through the twelve days of Christmas brings us to Epiphany. January 6th is the day that we remember when the wise men from the East followed the star in order that they might bring gifts to Jesus. While, we only designate these twelve days for travel, it is likely that it did not happen that quickly (remember – no super highways or air travel). This account only appears in Matthew (chp. 2) following his version of Jesus' birth.

People are drawn to Christ from all nations. From Jesus' ministry to the Gentiles throughout the Gospels to Paul's travels throughout his known world, the path of the Magi is replicated. Many have been drawn to that babe in the manger in all times and in all places.

Epiphany is a season of revelation, of the light dawning on high in the dim places of our world. This season draws us together as God's people scattered across the globe. As the days ever so slowly grow longer, our eyes are opened to the ways Christ's love and grace has been revealed to all people in every nation.

Many people in recent years have begun to explore their family trees – now made more possible through DNA tests. Some have discovered connections that they never knew about previously. Our backgrounds are made up of many different nations. Our ancestors paths have crossed in years past just as our own cross today. While we live together in one nation, we are from many nations (that's one of the blessings of living in this country with its rich diversity).

Jesus was born for all people – "God so loved the world" (John 3:16). While born in Bethlehem, his message of grace and love was poured out upon everyone in every place. This message could not be contained to one city, much less one country. It has been passed from generation to generation. Before he ascended into heaven, Jesus said to his disciples to "go into all nations" (Matthew 28:19) to bring this Good News. And as such, the whole Bible itself has been translated into 670 languages (portions of it into 3,312 languages with still more than 2000 of the known 7000 languages that await translation; source: <https://www.wycliffe.org/about/why>)

To celebrate and to highlight this diversity within our own congregation, we will be having different people share the Lord's Prayer in other languages. Each week in Epiphany, we will hear from our ancestors (known & unknown) in a variety of tongues. It will be a bit of a Pentecost moment when the disciples spoke in many different languages to spread the Gospel (Acts 2).

If you are willing to share the Lord's Prayer in a language that you know, please contact me. I have about 8 weeks that I would like to have a different language spoken.

Or maybe you want to try to learn the Lord's Prayer in the language of one of your ancestors or one that interests you. Take this as your Epiphany challenge – a way to learn and grow in faith and understanding of how the Good News is spread throughout the earth.

Blessings and peace, Pastor Jen

Faith @ Home – Bless your Home

Epiphany falls on January 6th - the last day of the Christmas season which marks the visit of the Magi to baby Jesus.

Matthew writes that when the magi saw the shining star stop overhead, they were filled with joy. "On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother" (Matt. 2:10-11). In the home, Christ is met in family and friends, in visitors and strangers. In the home, faith is shared, nurtured, and put into action. In the home, Christ is welcome.

Twelfth Night (January 5), Epiphany of Our Lord (January 6), or another day during the time after Epiphany offers an occasion for gathering with friends and family members for a blessing of the home. Someone may lead the greeting and blessing, while another person may read the scripture passage. Following an eastern European tradition, a visual blessing may be inscribed with white chalk above the main door; for example, 20 + CMB + 18. The numbers change with each new year. The three letters stand for either the ancient Latin blessing Christe mansionem benedicat, which means, "Christ, bless this house," or the legendary names of the magi (Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar).

The following can be used for blessing your home:

GREETING

May peace be to this house and to all who enter here. By wisdom a house is built and through understanding it is established; through knowledge its rooms are filled with rare and beautiful treasures. (Proverbs 24:3-4)

READING

As we prepare to ask God's blessing on this household, let us listen to the words of scripture.

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. (John 1:1-4, 14, 16)

INSCRIPTION

This inscription may be made with chalk above the entrance:

20 + C M B + 18

Write the appropriate character (left) while speaking the text (right).

The magi of old, known as

C Caspar,

M Melchior, and

B Balthasar

followed the star of God's Son who came to dwell among us

20 two thousand

18 and eighteen years ago.

+ Christ, bless this house,

+ and remain with us throughout the new year.

PRAYER OF BLESSING

O God, you revealed your Son to all people by the shining light of a star. We pray that you bless this home and all who live here with your gracious presence. May your love be our inspiration, your wisdom our guide, your truth our light, and your peace our benediction; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then everyone may walk from room to room, blessing the house with incense or by sprinkling with water, perhaps using a branch from the Christmas tree.

January 2020 Property News

Property News January 2020

It's time for those New Year's resolutions to be pondered and set in place for whatever endeavor you hope to prove successful in 2020. As I look back on last year, and all the work we as a church have done in keeping our appearance and our facilities here at Trinity in good order, we can all be proud of our accomplishments. Much of that work is listed line by line in our annual report that will be discussed and available for review at our Annual Congregation Meeting on Sunday January 26th. As this new year begins, we acknowledge and are thankful for the resolve of our members for prior years accomplishments. We also once again want to make a resolution to "pay it forward" in planning for needed repairs and maintenance, and in raising the necessary funds to enable Trinity church to continue to be of service to our members and our community. If you would like to join in as an active member of the property committee please let me know, your input would be most welcomed.

Sincerely,

Peter Donoghue
Property coordinator

Terracycle Thank You

I want to thank the congregation for saving all their toothbrushes, shampoo bottles etc. over the year, along with deposit bottles. Because of you, we collected $100 in deposit bottles and $116 in Terracycle programs totaling $216. Thanks for all you did and I look forward to another prosperous year.

Georgina Marek

Your Pledge Makes a Difference!

To date, only 37 pledge cards have been received. Submitting a pledge card helps the Finance Committee to put together a more accurate budget.

If you need a new pledge card, we do have some available at the church office or you may just email your pledge information to the church office:

trinlutheranoffice@yahoo.com.

Include your name, amount of pledge for the month or year (either or both) the general fund and mortgage fund. You can also indicate if you are going to give on-line.

Join the Altar Guild!

We are currently looking for new Altar Guild members. An Altar Guild member is responsible for preparing the altar for worship each Sunday. The responsibilities include changing the colored paraments according to the church calendar, polishing the communion vessels, and preparing the candles. These tasks require about one hour each week to prepare for the 8:30 am service Sunday, 15 minutes between services, and another 15 minutes following the second service. These tasks are often split between those attending the first service and the second service. Assigned weeks are divided according to your availability and worship habits.

If you can spare some time for Trinity and help us out with preparing the altar for worship each week, please contact Joanne Icken (jicken@yahoo.com)

COMMENTS

MORTGAGE FUND - Mortgage is paid off as of 10/1/2018

MONTHLY INCOME - November income was $750 less than expenses.

YEAR-TO-DATE - Expenses were $2,526 more than income

Trinity Finance

As the year winds down to a close our current state of finances is pretty good. November contributions were only $750 short of expenses, bringing our total deficit at this point to about $2,500. With generous Christmas donations we could finish the year with a surplus. This makes for a very happy gnome. The odds are I can spend the winters months snug in my cozy money bag and not bother anyone. God bless us, everyone.

Your financial gnome,
Don Icken

Social Ministry

Social Ministry for 2019

As we begin a new year I would like to thank the congregation for your support in making our social ministry events in 2019 a success. Your donations of money, time, and goods along with Thrivent money donations because of our Trinity Thrivent investors have enabled us to do some amazing things. During 2019 we did the following:

- 64 Lutheran World Relief Personal Care Kits
- 60 Lutheran World Relief School Kits
- 13 Lutheran World Relief Fleece Blankets
- 37 Easter Candy Bags for Putnam CAP clients
- Fed 30-35 homeless men and women in NYC
- Multiple bags of Thanksgiving food and gift cards for Putnam CAP

First Friday

There will be no First Friday for January. Plan for the next one in February.

Faith Book club

Our next book is “Sensible shoes: A story about the spiritual journey” by Sharon Garlough Brown. This fictional book follows four women as they find through spiritual practices a path together, living in God’s loving presence. (This is the first book in a series of four books)

We will meet again on Monday, January 13th (7pm) at Joanne Icken’s house. Please sign up in the narthex or with Pastor Jen to receive directions.

Faith Formation

A new study will begin in January called “The Simple Faith of Mr. Rogers” with resources from an online course from Church Next. Through a series of videos and discussion, we will learn about the background of Mr. Rogers as well as explore the ways in which his faith witness might help us to live out our faith as well.

This study begins on Wednesday, January 15th (7pm). We will meet in the General Meeting room.

Here are a couple of books that delve into this faith as well:

Annual meeting

On Sunday, a January 26th, there will be one service only at 8:30 am followed by the Affirmation Bacon & egg sandwich fundraiser. After the meal, we will gather in Shepherds hall for our Annual meeting. All confirmed members are encouraged to attend.

Annual reports will be available to pick up by January 19th

3rd Tuesday Table Talk

Hopefully, you are all “recovered” from your holiday feasts – we will gather once again for our monthly Table talks on Tuesday, January 21st (6:30pm) at Luigi’s (Carmel) for a time of fellowship and conversation. Please reserve your spot by signing up in the narthex.

For the New Year, in addition to our regular conversations, we will have a suggested reflection questions to share our thoughts with one another. You are invited to share this with others as well:

*Did you make a New Year’s resolution?
If so, what was it and how is it going?
If you were to make a faith resolution, what might it be?*

What might you need to help you live into this commitment?

BESP Shelter Schedule

The BESP emergency shelter opened for the season on Monday, November 18 The shelter provides an evening meal and an overnight place to sleep for the homeless adults in our community during the coldest nights of the year.

Trinity served its first week the week of December 9 to 15. We thank all of our Trinity volunteers who made meals, served food and slept as a volunteer overnight host along the paid supervisor.

We the people of Trinity will be providing meals and an overnight host to assist the paid supervisor for the following weeks:

- February 10-16 at First Baptist Church, Brewster
- March 9-15 at First Baptist Church , Brewster

Please let me know if you would like to make a meal, serve a meal or be an overnight host.

We also thank Phil De Roberts for making sure the needed supply boxes are filled for the entire BESP season and Phil and Charlie Germain for moving all the supplies, Sleeping bags and cots each week from church to church along with volunteers from other houses of worship.
