

Worship at Trinity Lutheran Church
October 25, 2020

Welcome as we gather together in the name of God! Whether we are physically present with one another or gathering remotely, we know that Christ is truly present in our midst

Each Sunday, we will gather at 9:30am in our building as well as via Facebook Live. The service will be posted on our YouTube page

(https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCEBfzqqPTuf8fe3PjPr21gA?view_as=subscribe)

If you know of others who are in need of signs of God's love and grace, who are curious and/or questioning, who would like to experience the peace of Christ – please invite them to join us “live” and/or to visit our Facebook page or YouTube channel.

If anyone needs to talk to someone amidst this time of anxiety, please feel free to contact Pastor Jen via the church office (trinlutheranoffice@yahoo.com) and/or her personal email (revjedyer1@yahoo.com).

Our weekly emails are also posted on our website

<http://trinitybrewsterny.org/wordpress/>.

Listed here is the order of worship so that you are able to follow along. We have included links to the hymns and an anthem picked by Franklyn that you may listen to in addition to our online service

Congregational responses are in bold. You are invited to read aloud wherever you may be worshipping.

HYMNS: While we gather for in-person worship, we will not be singing any of the hymns. We will either speak the words responsively and/or listen to the accompaniment. All the words have been included for devotional use.

Setting up: Set aside some sacred space where you are to worship and prayer. Light a candle (or more), set out your Bible and/or a cross. Spend a few moments in silence before you begin.

Introduction: God challenges David to broaden his understanding of the house of the Lord from being a place to being a people. On this Reformation Sunday, we too are challenged to re-form our ideas of what it means to be God's Church in today's world.

Holy Communion (bread only) will be offered for “drive thru” service (9am-9:20am & 10:15am-10:45am) as well as at the end of this worship service. If this time does not work, please contact Pastor Jen.

We will be going LIVE before beginning the service with time for reflection to allow time for people to join our live feed before the spoken portion of our service begins.

PRELUDE “I Will Make an Everlasting Covenant” Jacob van Vleck

WELCOME

You are invited to comment below the video if there are particular prayers that you would like to lift up and have others pray about during the week. Please let us know that you are joining us online by commenting

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP

Come to remember what God has done, come to celebrate what God is doing,
come to seek God’s future.
For it is God’s faithfulness that defines our lives.

Your promise is sure, O God.
You have led us on our travels, provided a place for your people,
and planted us by your grace.
In your enduring love, guide us into alignment with your will,
that we may offer ourselves in worship and living that is pleasing to you and reflects your glory.

CONFESSION

God knows that we can't keep the covenant perfectly. Pretending that we are more saint than sinner serves no one, for we deceive only ourselves. When we are honest about our failings, the Spirit re-forms us so that our faith can bear fruit in the world. Let us pray.

Silence for reflection and self-examination

Almighty God, your generous love calls us to your way. We confess that our practice of generosity is not always as faithful as yours. We admit that we are prone to deciding what we think others need, and imposing our desires on them...and we often do the same with you. We confess that we presume to know your mind, rather than pausing to listen for your will. Forgive us when our self-centered way of giving harms the dignity of others and breaks down relationships. And forgive us for the times we have confined your generosity to our terms, tying up your love and justice in our systems and stories. Guide us once again into your truth, and free us by your grace, to live for your glory. Amen.

Friends, hear this good news: the love of God will never be taken from us. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ is for you, that you may walk in faith and live in peace. Know that you are forgiven, loved, and free. Thanks be to God. Amen.

GATHERING HYMN The Church of Christ in Every Age ELW 729

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wUvPH_gy1c

The church of Christ in ev'ry age beset by change, but Spirit-led, must claim and test its heritage and keep on rising from the dead.

Across the world, across the street,
the victims of injustice cry for shelter and for bread to eat, and never live before they die.

Then let the servant church arise, a caring church that longs to be a partner in Christ's sacrifice, and clothed in Christ's humanity.

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE

For he alone, whose blood was shed, can cure the fever in our blood, and teach us how to share our bread and feed the starving multitude.

We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord;
to care for all, without reserve,
and spread his liberating word.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of hope, You promised to make David's household great among the nations. Then you sent your son, Jesus, to transform this world so that all people are one in the great household of God. Show us how to live as your children, as sisters and brothers in your holy and blessed realm, in the name of your son, Jesus Christ, who will one day welcome us all home. Amen.

READING: 2 Samuel 7:1-17

Now when the king was settled in his house, and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, "See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent." Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that you have in mind; for the Lord is with you." But that same night the word of the Lord came to Nathan: Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the Lord: Are you the one to build me a house to live in? I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle. Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people

Israel, saying, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?" Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the Lord of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel; and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly, from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover the Lord declares to you that the Lord will make you a house. When your days are fulfilled and you lie down with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring after you, who shall come forth from your body, and I will establish his kingdom. He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. I will be a father to him, and he shall be a son to me. When he commits iniquity, I will punish him with a rod such as mortals use, with blows inflicted by human beings. But I will not take my steadfast love from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away from before you. Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before me; your throne shall be established forever. In accordance with all these words and with all this vision, Nathan spoke to David.

Word of God, Word of life Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia! Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life! Alleluia!

HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 1:30-33

The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God. And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus. He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David. He will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.'

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ

HYMN OF THE DAY: A Mighty Fortress ELW 504

<https://youtu.be/8XUYZoguhEQ>

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE

A mighty fortress is our God, a sword and shield victorious;
he breaks the cruel oppressor's rod and wins salvation glorious.

The old evil foe, sworn to work us woe, with dread craft and might he arms himself to fight.

On earth he has no equal.

No strength of ours can match his might!

We would be lost, rejected.

But now a champion comes to fight, whom God himself elected.

Ask who this may be: Lord of hosts is he!

Christ Jesus our Lord,

God's only Son, adored.

He holds the field victorious.

INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE

Though hordes of devils fill the land

all threat'ning to devour us, we tremble not, unmoved we stand;

they cannot overpower us.

This world's prince may rage, in fierce war engage.

He is doomed to fail

God's judgment must prevail!

One little word subdues him.

God's Word forever shall abide,

no thanks to foes, who fear it;

for God himself fights by our side with weapons of the Spirit.

If they take our house, goods, fame, child, or spouse, wrench our life away,

they cannot win the day.

The kingdom's ours forever!

AFFIRMATION OF BAPTISM

I present Daniel Baggetta, Lucas Bertone and Kyle Klammer who desire to make public affirmation of their baptism.

Let us pray.

Merciful God, we thank you for these brothers in faith, whom you have made your own by water and the Word in baptism. You have called them to yourself, enlightened them with the gifts of your Spirit, and nourished them in the community of faith. Uphold your servants in the gifts and promises of baptism, and unite the hearts of all whom you have brought to new birth. We ask this in the name of Christ.

Amen.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The presiding minister addresses those making public affirmation of baptism. The assembly may stand and join in the responses.

I ask you to profess your faith in Christ Jesus, reject sin, and confess the faith of the church.

Do you believe in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.*

On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven,

he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

You have made public profession of your faith. Do you intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in holy baptism:

to live among God's faithful people, to hear the word of God and share in the Lord's supper, to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed, to serve all people, following the example of Jesus, and to strive for justice and peace in all the earth?

Each person responds: I do, and I ask God to help and guide me.

People of God, do you promise to support these brothers in faith and pray for them in their life in Christ? We do, and we ask God to help and guide us.

Those making affirmation may kneel. The presiding minister prays for God's blessing.

Let us pray.

We give you thanks, O God that through water and the Holy Spirit you give us new birth, cleanse us from sin, and raise us to eternal life.

Stir up in Daniel/Lucas/Kyle the gift of your Holy Spirit: the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord, the spirit of joy in your presence, both now and forever.

Amen.

Let us rejoice with these brothers in Christ.

We rejoice with you in the life of baptism.

Together we will give thanks and praise to God and proclaim the good news to all the world.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

We pause to humbly offer up our prayers before God for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

God of everlasting grace, as we gather in worship, we are thankful for the community of faith that you have created here. We celebrate this day Lucas, Kyle and Daniel as they affirm the promises made in their baptism. May we all continue to live as your Church beyond the walls, joining you in the midst of the world to share your Good News of peace, grace and love. God of mercy; hear our prayer.

Lord of creation, storms rage across the globe. As your creation is ravaged by the effects of our neglectful stewardship, be with all those who seek to restore, renew and protect the whole of your world. We pray especially pray for those who are tasked with rescue and relief amidst hurricanes and wildfires. God of mercy; hear our prayer.

Lord of all, you created everyone in your loving image. As we look at the world around us, help us to see beyond what separates us and to marvel in the beautiful diversity of race, gender, age, and background. Enable us to speak and act in the name of your love in the face of hatred, racism and other biases. God of mercy; hear our prayer.

God of strength, we witness the struggles of body, mind and spirit of those around us. We pray for healing and comfort for all those who are in need. Continue to bless the work of the medical community, particularly those who are seeking a vaccine for this disease. We pray especially this day for....(pause), for those that have no one to name them and those that don't know Christ's name. God of mercy; hear our prayer.

God of eternity, we are blessed by the witness of all the saints who have gone before us. As we mark this Reformation Sunday, we are thankful for Martin Luther and others who you have used to be witnesses to our need to be ever-reforming. God of mercy; hear our prayer.

Additional prayers may be offered silently or aloud

Pastor: We lift up all these prayers and so many others that echo throughout our world, trusting always in your love and mercy revealed through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

SHARING THE PEACE

The Peace of the Christ be with you always And also with you
(you are invited to share a sign of peace with those who are with you, by commenting in the Facebook feed as well as by calling/sending a message of peace to someone)

OFFERING (You are invited to listen to this song as our “anthem” for this week. You are also encouraged to continue to share your offering with Trinity by mailing them to the church office or by donating online via our website: www.trinitybrewsterny.org)

ANTHEM: “Covenant Song” Aaron Senseman

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=t54MAwfKiYo>

INVITATION OF STEWARDSHIP/OFFERING PRAYER

We are blessed daily by God’s grace in our lives. All that we are, all that we have, all that we hope to be are gifts from God, entrusted into our care. As we lift up our offerings before God, may these tangible means be a sign of the stewardship of our whole lives, offered in thanksgiving for the One who gave all for our sakes, Jesus Christ our Lord.

All we have and all we are is a gift from you, O God. We bring you our offerings as a sign of our gratitude, and pray that you would use them to be a blessing to your world. May our lives be so shaped by your story that we ourselves become a living offering, dedicated to your service. We ask in the name of the One who gave himself in love for the world, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses

as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

MISSION & MINISTRY ANNOUNCEMENTS

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Pastor Jen will be at the door as you depart to share the body of Christ with you. Please wait to remove your mask and eat it after you are outside.

BLESSING

DISMISSAL

Go, in peace. Christ is with you. Thanks be to God!

Please maintain a distance of 6 feet between yourself and those who are not part of your household as you leave your pew and as you receive the Body of Christ. Also please keep your mask on and do not linger in the building.

SENDING HYMN Jesus Shall Reign ELW 434

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5U4IMtvp6bg>

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun does its successive journeys run; his kingdom stretch from shore to shore, till moons shall wax and wane no more.

To him shall endless prayer be made, and praises throng to crown his head; his name like sweet perfume shall rise with ev'ry morning sacrifice.

People and realms of ev'ry tongue dwell on his love with sweetest song; and infant voices shall proclaim their early blessings on his name.

Blessings abound where'er he reigns: the prisoners leap to lose their chains, the weary find eternal rest, and all who suffer want are blest.

Let ev'ry creature rise and bring peculiar honors to our king;
angels descend with songs again,
and earth repeat the loud amen.

Text: LM; based on Psalm 72; Isaac Watts, 1674-1748, alt. Music: John Hatton, ca. 1710-1793.

(The worship has ended, let the service begin)

Worship Notes: Portions of the worship service has been adapted by Pastor Jen from the following resources: Working Preacher (Prayer of the Day,); Bible Worm/Rev. Terri Peterson (Preparing for worship, confession, Offering prayer, Prayers of Intercession); written by Pastor Jen Boyd (Introduction, invitation of stewardship)

Music Notes: Jacob Van Vleck, Moravian bishop, was born in New York City, the third oldest of seven children. His father Henry Van Vleck, was a merchant and realtor in New York City. Jacob attended the theological seminary at Barby, Saxony, between 1771 and 1779. At this time he sought experience at the Single Brothers House in Christiansbrunn, Pa.

His abilities were recognized, and by 1781 he was appointed chaplain and superintendent of the Brothers House at Bethlehem, Pa. Here he became secretary of the General Board. Perhaps in appreciation for the Moravians allowing the Brothers House to be used as a hospital on two occasions during the American Revolution, George Washington in 1782 visited Bethlehem, where he was entertained by sacred music, vocal and instrumental. Jacob Van Vleck played the organ in the chapel while cake and wine were served. Van Vleck had a fondness for music and was a pianist, organist, and violinist, as well as a composer. The music he wrote was in the classical tradition. His father's admiration for him was evidenced in his will in 1784; it stated, "And unto my dear Son, Jacob, I give my Silver pocket watch which I leave him in Remembrance of His Father who ever had singular joy in his said son's Spiritual prosperity."

Aaron Senseman has spent the past ten years as a worship leader in congregations throughout the Houston area and elsewhere. He has toured nationally with Bebo Norman as well as Caedmon's Call, and he's written dozens of songs. Apart from attending one of his worship services at Crosspoint in Farmingdale, L.I. there just wasn't a way to hear most of them, until the release of his CD More than Anything.

Altar Flowers: Today's altar flowers are given by Laurie Bell in honor of her parents, Dorothy and Jim Yessian, who would have celebrated their sixty-third wedding anniversary this week.

Announcements

All Saints Sunday: To remember and commemorate the saints who have entered the Church Triumphant, we will once again be naming those who have died in the last year as well as any others that you would like to add to the list. Please submit any names for the bulletin by Wednesday, Oct. 28th to the Church office. We will once again be lighting the candles and are working on adjusting the logistics for our present circumstances.

Time change: Reminder that next week, Nov. 1st is Daylight Savings time when we "fall back" one hour.

Putnam CAP: will only be receiving donations of turkeys for this year's Thanksgiving baskets as well as gift cards and/or monetary donations for both the baskets as well as Christmas gifts for the children. You may either give them directly to Putnam CAP (121 Main Street, Brewster; Putnam CAP Home Page) or through Trinity. They are asking that all donations be made by Nov. 13th.

Putnam CAP Home Page

Pocket Prayer Quilts: Recently after worship, Marilyn Platt brought me a box. In the early days of the virus, she was looking for something to do and came across these Pocket prayer quilts. Into the middle of each of these 2 inch squares is sewn a small plastic cross along with a prayer on the back for God's peace to be in their lives. (How to Make a Pocket Prayer Quilt | a Shabby Fabrics Tutorial). She finished these back in April, but when I started talking about our vision about Sharing the Peace of Christ with others, she thought about the connection with this small quilts.

We are looking to make more of these for folks to give out or leave in their daily travels as they encounter both people they know as well as those they don't know. We can make the prayer to go with it (will also be including a Bible verse with our contact info). Let us know if you are willing to make some of them.

Trinity's Vision: Sharing the Peace of Christ

In the coming weeks, you are invited to join the Church Council in brainstorming ideas related to our vision of sharing the peace of Christ. In the midst of today's world, how might we bring a sense of hope-filled peace into the lives of others? Who in your life might need to experience the peace of Christ? We will be making very tangible efforts to live out this vision and we need everyone's commitment to living it out!

Christmas services?: In looking at a variety of ideas related to how we might celebrate Christmas faithfully and safely, we are seeking your input. We need to have a sense of how many people might attend any in-person Christmas eve or day services. Please go to: Christmas in-person worship and take a very short survey. If you are unable to do this online, please contact Pastor Jen. Your input is valuable and needed!

Congregational meeting: On Sunday, Nov. 1st (10:30am) we will gather once again (virtually & in-person) to discuss the possibility of being a sleeping site for the emergency shelter. We hope to have a member of the current board to help answer questions. Watch for a letter to be sent out soon with more information.

CLOTHING SHED CLOSED: ST. Pauli textile who collects from the clothing shed has closed our shed temporarily. Please discourage anyone from making further donations at this time.

Trinity reads: the church Council is inviting the congregation to join them in reading “Dear Church: a love letter from a black preacher to the whitest denomination in the US” by Rev. Lenny Duncan, an ELCA pastor. We have been Invited and challenged by both the Metro NY synod and the ELCA to be deliberate in anti-racism understanding and efforts. As a part of these efforts, we are each encouraged as well to sign the ELCA anti-racism pledge (<https://www.elca.org/racialjusticepledge>). The book is available through our publishing house, Augsburg Fortress and other booksellers. If you need assistance in obtaining the book, please contact Pastor Jen.

We will be gathering - via Zoom- on Monday, Oct. 26th. The link will be sent out with the bulletin on that Sunday
