

Worship at Trinity Lutheran Church
December 13, 2020

Welcome as we gather together in the name of God! Whether we are physically present with one another or gathering remotely, we know that Christ is truly present in our midst

Each Sunday, we will gather at 9:30am in our building as well as via Facebook Live. The service will be posted on our YouTube page

(https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCEBfzqqPTuf8fe3PjPr21gA?view_as=subscribe)

If you know of others who are in need of signs of God's love and grace, who are curious and/or questioning, who would like to experience the peace of Christ – please invite them to join us “live” and/or to visit our Facebook page or YouTube channel.

If anyone needs to talk to someone amidst this time of anxiety, please feel free to contact Pastor Jen via the church office (trinlutheranoffice@yahoo.com) and/or her personal email (revjedyer1@yahoo.com).

Our weekly emails are also posted on our website

<http://trinitybrewsterny.org/wordpress/>.

Listed here is the order of worship so that you are able to follow along. We have included links to the hymns and an anthem picked by Franklyn that you may listen to in addition to our online service

Setting up: Set aside some sacred space where you are to worship and prayer. Light a candle (or more), set out your Bible and/or a cross. Spend a few moments in silence before you begin.

Introduction: Although Israel had sinned and was exiled, God still promised a better future. One day God would adorn the people with salvation and righteousness.

We will be going LIVE before beginning the service with time for reflection to allow time for people to join our live feed before the spoken portion of our service begins.

PREPARING FOR WORSHIP

Good news for you — for us!

In the midst of all that has happened, in the midst of all that is happening,

God offers a change,

restoring us to embody the possibility of joy and display God’s glory.

God provides all we need to both hear and live Good News!

So let us come, body and spirit together, to worship.

You bring us tidings of great joy, Lord, even into our weary land.

You proclaim freedom and release, comfort and gladness,

to a world longing for renewal of our bodies and our spirits.

Where we have felt parched,

you are bringing up new life.

Where the earth has languished, you are planting a new garden.

Where your people have withered,
you are restoring justice and hope.
Let our whole being exult in you,
and our joy ring out in praise.

CONFESSION

We humbly pause in this time, in the presence of our loving God, to offer up all that weighs heavily upon our hearts, seeking Christ's mercy and grace

Silence for reflection and self-examination

You pour out your Spirit, Lord God, calling us to create communities of justice and joy and thus exhibit your kingdom to the world.

We confess that, more often than not, when the world looks at Christians at Christmas, they do not see justice and joy.

We admit that repairing places and lives devastated by injustice is low down our priority list, and that we mean it in a spiritual sense, not a tangible one.

But you call us to root our joy in our bodies, your first gift to us.

You begin with dignity, and joy follows on from embodied justice.

Forgive our over-reliance on shallow cheer, our papering over mourning and oppression, our insistence on providing for our every desire while ignoring others' bodily needs. Pour out your Spirit once again, that we may live according to your everlasting covenant, and reveal your will for abundant life. We ask in the name of the One who embodied your good news of liberation and favor, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

God knows our every weakness and still loves us and upholds our life.

May our sins be forgiven, our past forgotten, and our hope restored in the name of our incarnate savior, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

GATHERING HYMN Hark the Glad Sound ELW 239

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cWa9Raw9Kes>

Hark the glad sound! The Savior comes, the Savior promised long;
let ev'ry heart prepare a throne and ev'ry voice a song.

He comes the pris'ners to release, in Satan's bondage held.
The gates of brass before Him burst,
the iron fetters yield.

He comes the broken heart to bind,
the bleeding soul to cure,
and with the treasures of his grace to enrich the humble poor.

Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace, your welcome shall proclaim,
and heav'n's eternal arches ring with your beloved name.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH: Embracing through Truth (Joy)

We remember the prophet Isaiah who spoke Truth to a lost and confused people.

In a precarious time he spoke of the God of Justice and Steadfast Love.

We hear God calling us to a new Truth.

We hear the call to be a people of Promise.

On this Third Sunday of Advent God meets us in the mystery of God's truth.

ADVENT CAROL: "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," (ELW 257, verse 3)

O come, O come, O Lord of might

As to your tribes on Sinai's height

In ancient times you gave the law

In cloud and majesty and awe.

Rejoice! Rejoice!

Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Faithful God, You restore to your people all that has been lost. Renew our hopes for the future and our zeal for serving you as chosen and beloved children, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

READING: Isaiah 61:1-11

The spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me; he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed, to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to the prisoners; to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to provide for those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, to display his glory. They shall build up the ancient ruins, they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations. Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, foreigners shall till your land and dress your vines; but you shall be called priests of the LORD, you shall be named ministers of our God; you shall enjoy the wealth of the nations, and in their riches you shall glory. Because their^[a] shame was double, and dishonor was proclaimed as their lot, therefore they shall possess a double portion; everlasting joy shall be theirs. For I the LORD love justice, I hate robbery and wrongdoing; I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. Their descendants shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the LORD has blessed. I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my whole being shall exult in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.

Word of God, Word of life, Thanks be to God!

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia! Lord, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life! Alleluia!

HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 4:16-21

The holy Gospel according to Luke, the 4th chapter. Glory to you, O Lord

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

‘The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free,

to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favour.’

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down.

The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, ‘Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.’

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ

HYMN OF THE DAY: Come, Thou Long Expected Jesus ELW 254

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AeUF8iO4UQ8>

Come, thou long expected Jesus, born to set thy people free;
from our fears and sins release us;
let us find our rest in thee.
Israel's strength and consolation, hope of all the earth thou art,
dear desire of ev'ry nation,
joy of ev'ry longing heart.

Born thy people to deliver, born a child, and yet a King;
born to reign in us forever,
now thy gracious kingdom bring.
By thine own eternal Spirit rule in all our hearts alone;
by thine all-sufficient merit raise us to thy glorious throne.

APOSTLE'S CREED

With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the virgin Mary,

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;

he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven,

he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

We pause to humbly offer up our prayers before God for the church, the world, and all those in need.

A brief silence.

You are a God of good news, providing and renewing with your generous spirit.

We give you thanks for your comfort, providing just what we need to step from mourning toward dancing.

We pray you would console those whose spirits are faint, strengthen those whose bodies are frail, encourage those whose minds are weary.

May all who suffer know wholeness in your presence.

(Brief silence)

We pray you would hasten the day of freedom, that all who labor under a heavy yoke may stand tall, that all may enjoy the fruits of their own work, that all who carry the crushing load of debt or poverty may breathe easily.

May those who bear the weight of this world's injustice be lifted up.

(Brief silence)

We pray you would restore your devastated creation, bring peace to places of violence,
bring hope to those who feel forgotten,
bring dignity to those who have been excluded.

May your parched land and its people spring up with living water.

(Brief silence)

We pray you would pour out your Spirit on your Church, knit us together as one Body, move us from apathy to action,

make us a sign of your compassion and grace.

May all who see us understand your will for your kingdom to come on earth as in heaven.

(Additional prayers may be offered now)

Pastor: We ask these and all things in the name of the coming Word made flesh, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE

The Peace of the Christ be with you always, And also with you

(you are invited to share a sign of peace with those who are with you, by commenting in the Facebook feed as well as by calling/sending a message of peace to someone)

OFFERING (You are invited to listen to this song as our “anthem” for this week. You are also encouraged to continue to share your offering with Trinity be mailing them to the church office or by donating online via our website: www.trinitybrewsterny.org)

ANTHEM: “The Spirit of the Lord God” Graham Kendrick

INVITATION OF STEWARDSHIP/OFFERING PRAYER

In the beginning, God entrusted the world to us, placing the responsibility of its care and nurture to each of us. We are called upon to be wise and faith-filled stewards of the earth and its resources, material assets, our personal gifts and our relationships with family, friend and stranger alike. We offer now our first fruits back to God to continue the work of God's kingdom.

You love justice, O Lord, and long to see all your people live life abundant. Bless these gifts and make them work towards your vision of plenty for all, in the power of your Spirit. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

This Gratitude 2020 edition will feature a message from our Bishop and leaders, an article with suggestions about how we can care for those most in need during this time of year, and recommendations and ideas for celebrating a Digital Christmas.

Pocket Prayer Quilts: Recently after worship, Marilyn Platt brought me a box. In the early days of the virus, she was looking for something to do and came across these Pocket prayer quilts. Into the middle of each of these 2 inch squares is sewn a small plastic cross along with a prayer on the back for God's peace to be in their lives. (How to Make a Pocket Prayer Quilt | a Shabby Fabrics Tutorial). She finished these back in April, but when I started talking about our vision about Sharing the Peace of Christ with others, she thought about the connection with this small quilts.

We are looking to make more of these for folks to give out or leave in their daily travels as they encounter both people they know as well as those they don't know. We can make the prayer to go with it (will also be including a Bible verse with our contact info). Let us know if you are willing to make some of them.

Trinity's Vision: Sharing the Peace of Christ

In the coming weeks, you are invited to join the Church Council in brainstorming ideas related to our vision of sharing the peace of Christ. In the midst of today's world, how might we bring a sense of hope-filled peace into the lives of others? Who in your life might need to experience the peace of Christ? We will be making very tangible efforts to live out this vision and we need everyone's commitment to living it out!

CLOTHING SHED CLOSED: ST. Pauli textile who collects from the clothing shed has closed our shed temporarily. Please discourage anyone from making further donations at this time.

Altar Flowers: Since we are meeting in person for worship, if you would like to put flowers on the altar, please sign up on the new flower chart that has been placed in Narthex, call, text or email me. You can call me at 845-277-8012; text me

Poinsettias for the altar are limited in quantity and have been already been purchased by congregation members who had given me money in the spring for Easter Lilies. I regret that there are not more available for purchase. Our florist was unable to supply them to us this year.
