Trinity Finance

I am a happy gnome! You don't usually see a happy gnome. We spend most of our time worrying about money. That is just our nature. However, I am happy. In August our donations were greater than our expenses. That was the first time this year I could say that. It wasn't by much, but it was a win. And I will take it. Thank you all for responding to your church's need. Please keep it up as our expenses typically rise as we head into holiday season.
