FAITH FORMATION: We have concluded our studies on the Gospel of John and will be starting a book study on Barbara Brown Taylor's book, "Holy Envy: Finding God in the Faith of Others". As an ordained Episcopal priest who teaches comparative religions at Piedmont college, she invites us into her classroom where she takes students on field trips to explore the lived traditions of a variety of faiths. Our book study will begin in May with our Wednesday Zoom group (7 pm) and our Thursday in person group (10 am). Pastor Jen has a couple of copies if anyone has difficulty in finding the book.

SABBATICAL PROPOSAL: You should've received an email this week with part of the proposed Sabbatical for Pastor Jen. We are submitting a grant to provide the needed funds for her as well as the congregation; this sabbatical would not be until the summer of 2023. Once the grant is finished and submitted, we will make it available to the congregation to read. We will also have opportunities for people to ask questions and hear about more of the details. We will also be planning activities for participation by the congregation before, during and after the actual Sabbatical. The current task force members include Joan Bradley, Gary Gerfen, Charlie Germain and Heather (Efferen) Hargrave.

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF: is working tirelessly to respond to families in crisis. Our teams are reaching out to local organizations that have direct access inside Ukraine and who are welcoming refugees fleeing to neighboring countries. Urgent action is needed to address the escalating humanitarian catastrophe in Ukraine. Go to <http://www.lwr.org> to donate directly and for up to date news on their efforts. Donation information is included in the bulletin this week.

FIRST FRIDAY: Will be May 6th with a Latino theme. Mark your calendars now!!

MOWING: We are looking for people to help with the summer mowing on the church property. If you are available to do so, please contact Gary Gerfen (gary.gerfen1@gmail.com) to find what weeks are still open. We have all the needed equipment but can always use more hands to help us be good stewards of the property that God has placed in our care
