9:30 AM*

Welcome as we gather in the name of God! Whether we are physically present with one another or gathering remotely, we know that Christ is truly present in our midst.

We welcome our visitors today. If you are looking for a church home and want to know more about living together as Christians, please contact Pastor Boyd during the week.

If you know of others who are in need of signs of God's love and grace, who are curious and/or questioning, who would like to experience the peace of Christ – please invite them to join us for worship in person or through our social media channels. They may also contact the church office (trinlutheranoffice@yahoo.com) and/or Pastor Jen (revjedyer1@yahoo.com).

You are invited to worship with us each week. There is a spoken-in-person service on Thursdays at 12 noon and on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. as well as via Facebook Live on Trinity's Facebook page. The service will be posted later on our YouTube page. The weekly bulletin is posted on our website (links at the end of the bulletin)

Precautions: Wearing masks is now optional but we are encouraging you to wear them around children and if you are unsure of someone's health status. We do have extra masks for those who need them

Check in: Please make sure that you have checked in with the usher that we may maintain our contact-tracing list if it becomes needed.

The complete order for worship, is printed in this worship folder. Congregational responses are in bold. Music for the hymns are in ELW (red hymnal) in the rack in front of you. If you require an enlarged print bulletin or an assistive listening device, please ask an usher.

PARENTS: Please help your children follow the worship service, including standing up with the assembly. Thank you.

Introduction: We will be spending four weeks looking at Paul's letter to the Ephesians. While we will not read all the chapters and verses in worship, you are encouraged to read the intervening verses from week to week. This week read Ephesians 1:15-2:10.

Welcome and Announcements

THE ASSEMBLY STANDS

CALL TO WORSHIP

God, this is who we hold up high,

This is who we look to:

To Christ, who exceeded every expectation,

Defied every convention,

Fulfilled every prediction,

Revealed every intention.

Christ, who irritated the rule-makers,

Upstaged the Sabbath-breakers,

Out-played the money-schemers,

Inspired the justice-bringers.

Christ, who blessed the merciful,

Praised the peacemakers,

Empowered the healers,

Embraced the outsiders.

Christ who forgave the unforgivable,

Loved the unlovable,

Redeemed the unredeemable,

Touched the untouchable.

Christ, who endured suffering,

Faced down death,

Emptied the grave,

Raised up life.

Christ, light in darkness,

Peace in storm,

Comfort in trouble,

Strength in weakness.

Christ, whom God embodied,

Whose image is Divine,

Whose heart is pure,

Whose love we share.

Christ, who was, and is, and is to come,

Who walked, preached, healed,

Who was crucified, died, and buried.

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

CONFESSION

Almighty God to whom all hearts are open, all desires known and from whom no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name through Christ Jesus our Lord.

Brief silence for reflection and self-examination

Most merciful God

We confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways to the glory of your holy name.

ABSOLUTION

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us and for his sake, God forgives us of all our sins. As a called and ordained minister of Christ and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

GATHERING HYMN

God Loved the World ELW 323

God loved the world so that he gave
His only Son the lost to save,
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

Christ Jesus is the ground of faith,
Who was made flesh and suffered death;
All who confide in Christ alone
Are built on this chief cornerstone.

If you are ill, if death draws near,
This truth your troubled heart can cheer;
Christ Jesus rescues us from death;
That is the firmest ground of faith.

Be of good cheer, for God's own Son
Forgives all sins that you have done,
And justified by Jesus' blood,
Your baptism grants the highest good.

All glory to the Father, Son,
And Holy Spirit, Three in One!
To you, O blessed Trinity,
Be praise now and eternally!

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

HYMN OF PRAISE

Lord, I Lift Your Name on High

857

Lord, I lift your name on high; Lord, I love to sing your prais-es.
I'm so glad you're in my life, I'm so glad you came to save us.
You came from heav-en to earth to show the way, from the earth to the cross, my debt to pay, from the cross to the grave, from the grave to the sky; Lord, I lift your name on high.

LORD, I LIFT YOUR NAME
P.M.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

O God our Father, we thank you that today you have called us to worship you and learn of you.

You alone know our needs. Satisfy them with your unchanging love. In your presence may we find comfort in sorrow, guidance in perplexity, strength to meet temptation, grace to overcome the fascination of disobedience, and courage to face up to the hostility of this rebellious world. Above all, may we meet Jesus and go out from our worship indwelt by his spirit. This prayer we ask to your glory and in his name. Amen.

+ WORD +

READING: EPHESIANS 1:1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,
To the saints who are in Ephesus and are faithful in Christ Jesus:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. He destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace that he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us. With all wisdom and insight he has made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure that he set forth in Christ, as a plan for the fullness of time, to gather up all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

Word of God; Word of Life

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 5:1-12

The Holy Gospel according to Matthew the 5th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

‘Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

‘Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

‘Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

‘Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

‘Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

‘Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

‘Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

‘Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

HYMN OF THE DAY:

Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross* ELW 335

Jesus, keep me near the cross, there's a precious fountain;
Free to all, a healing stream flows from Calv'ry's mountain.

Refrain:

In the cross, in the cross be my glory ever;
Till my ransomed soul shall find rest beyond the river.

Near the cross, a trembling soul, love and mercy found me;
There the bright and morning star sheds its beams around me.

Refrain

Near the cross! O Lamb of God, bring its scenes before me;
Help me walk from day to day with its shadow o'er me.

Refrain

Near the cross I'll watch and wait, hoping, trusting ever,
Till I reach the golden strand just beyond the river.

APOSTLES' CREED

With the whole church, we confess our faith

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Lord, we gather in your presence just as the multitudes did so many years ago on a hill in Galilee. We gather not only to hear your word to us but also to bring the joys and concerns of our lives to you.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Our spirit can be poor in so many ways. We lift up those who struggle with addiction, mental illness, physical illness, violence, oppression, and fear. Each of these tears apart what you have created, and the daily burden of carrying them attacks the very essence of who we are. We pray for freedom from these struggles – for us and for those known only to you. We claim your promise that we belong to you in this life and the life to come.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

There are many things we mourn in this life: loss due to death, to aging; losses of jobs and relationships. These losses are very real and very difficult, and we find comfort knowing that you also wept and mourned loss in your life. We claim your promise of a peace that surpasses all understanding.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

Lord, we don't desire to inherit the things of this earth but pray for humility and grace as we live our lives. Our inheritance comes through you, who overcame all the powers of earth and all creation so that we may be with you in both life and death. We claim your promise that we will share in your inheritance.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Jesus, you told us that when we seek first your kingdom and your righteousness, then the things we need will be provided. Help us to trust in your words, knowing that when we seek you – loving mercy, acting justly, walking humbly – you will provide. Give us the courage to stand up to injustice even when we are afraid. We claim your promise that one day, justice will roll down like the waters and righteousness like a stream.

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

We pray, "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." In teaching us this prayer, you also taught us how to be merciful. May we let go of our pride so that we may find reconciliation in our relationships. Help us to see those whom we see as "other" as our brother and sister, your beloved child: the homeless, the immigrant, the violent, the foreigner. We claim your promise of mercy as we are merciful to others.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

We know the human heart deceives itself, Lord, so how will any of us see you? Help us to lay down the pride, greed, envy, anger, and lust in our hearts. Refine our intentions and desires so that your will is our will. We claim your promise to make the blind see, so that we may see you.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

Violence seems to rule the world. Whether in the streets of our towns, the mountains of Afghanistan, the deserts of Syria and Iraq, or the cities of Africa, we are killing each other. Lord, forgive us. We pray not only for the absence of conflict but for true peace – where weapons become instruments to tend crops and harvest trees and there shall be no more war. We claim your promise that people will come from the east and the west, the north and the south, to sit and eat together at your table.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Most of us do not know about persecution, especially for righteousness' sake. May we be aware of those who suffer and even die as they stand up for justice, liberation, peace, and basic human rights. As we gather so freely to worship you this morning, we pray safety for those who do so at the risk of prison or death. Shield them from danger as they boldly proclaim your word. Strengthen us so that we may be willing to stand up for that which we know is true. We claim your promise that your kingdom is greater than all the kingdoms of this world. Risen Lord, we are able to trust in your promises because you have defeated even death: Nothing can separate us from your love. As one and as your Body, we claim your promises to us as we choose to live as you lived.

Rejoice and be glad for God's kingdom is at hand

Here other petitions may be offered silently, aloud or online in the comments.

Pastor: Into your hands, O Lord, we commend these prayers – spoken aloud and whispered in our hearts – trusting in your divine will revealed through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SHARING OF PEACE

You are invited to share a sign of peace with others. Please check with those around you if they are comfortable with a handshake, elbow bump or other physical signs before reaching out. Peace signs and humble bows are a healthy alternative.

The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you always
And also with you

STEWARDSHIP/OFFERING PRAYER

God our Creator, you open wide your hand and satisfy the desire of every living creature. With these gifts we bless you for your tender nurture and care. Help us to delight in your will and walk in your ways through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERING SONG: God, We See What You Have Given

NETTLETON 8.7.8.7 D (“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing”)

God, we see what you have given;
Signs of grace are everywhere!
All around are gifts from heaven —
Gifts enough for all to share.

We are stewards of your bounty,
Called to give as we've received;
And your blessings have been plenty
From the day we first believed.

We are stewards, sent out sharing,
Offering you our very best.
Through our serving and our caring
May we give as we've been blessed.
God of love, may faithful living
Be much more than Sunday talk.
Send us loving, serving, giving;
Help us daily walk your walk!

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PROPER PREFACE

It is indeed our right, responsibility and joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior, Jesus Christ

Who on this day overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened the way to everlasting life

And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise you name and join them unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Blessed are you, O Lord our God, ruler of the universe, for your grace overflows in your world,
creating and redeeming and sustaining all things.

Your streams of mercy flow from your glory bringing living water into every place, nourishing creation, making it bear fruit that will last,
filling our cup until it runs over, spilling out abundant life.

We give you thanks for your generous providing,
and for your call to be your people.

We have wandered in the desert, we have turned our backs,
we have followed the path, we have walked on ahead, and still your Spirit calls us, tugging us back to your way, shining your light and singing your grace
so we might follow in faith.

It is with gratitude, praise, and hearts lifted high that we come to your table, calling to mind your Son who walked among us, who ate with sinners and tax collectors and women

the same as he ate with Pharisees and disciples and neighbors.

As he reached out to touch the sick,
may we reach out with healing hands.

As he went to the bad neighborhoods and visited the homes of the poor, may we go out to where your people long for good news.

As he spread health and holiness with every step, every word, every breath, may we live as if grace is contagious,

sharing your love with people near and far,

those we meet and those we would rather avoid.

As we meet at the feast of your family, O God,

we carry with us those who hunger and thirst,

who cannot imagine the abundance of this table,

who feel excluded or forgotten,

who live with fear and violence,

who wait for justice, who long for peace,

who suffer in body, mind, or spirit.

While we celebrate this day,

some in your family see no cause for celebration.

While we have feasted on your word,

some still see reading as an impossible luxury.

While we have learned and spoken and prayed together,

some have been silenced and held aside.

When we break bread together,

break our hearts too,

and then by your Spirit bind us together with all your people to seek your purpose and work your will.

In the night...do this in remembrance of me

Give us a glimpse of your kingdom, where the whole human family eats together, and strengthen us with the courage to build your kingdom here on earth.

We offer our hearts and lives to you, O God, praying that you would use grain and grape to write your covenant of love within us.

until grace overflows. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

(We will be doing the Lord's prayer as a litany between the English & Spanish versions. You may read either or both parts as you are comfortable in doing so)

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Padre nuestro, que estás en el cielo.

hallowed be thy name,

Santificado sea tu nombre

thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Venga tu reino. Hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo.

Give us this day our daily bread;

Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.

and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us;

Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden.

and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

No nos dejes caer en tentación y líbranos del mal.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen porque tuyo es el reino, el poder, y la Gloria ahora y siempre. Amén.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Christ gives of his self out of love and mercy for each of us. Come to God's table of grace to receive this abundant gift of life. Thanks be to God!

Distribution of Communion and Blessings

All the baptized are welcome to feast in the Eucharist. You may receive only the bread or wine and still experience the full benefit of our Lord's meal. Those who do not receive bread or wine are invited to come for a blessing. You are invited to kneel or stand at the altar rail. Pastor Jen will place a wafer in your hand and the assistant will give you a pre-filled glass with wine (grape juice is available; please indicate to Pastor Jen if you would like that). You may either partake of it there or when you return to your seat. The cups may be placed in the empty trays on the stands by the pews.

Communion Hymn:

You Are Mine ELW 581

"I will come to you in the silence,
I will lift you from your fear.
You will hear my voice,
I claim you as my choice.
Be still and know I am here.

“I am hope for all who are hopeless,
I am eyes for all who long to see,
In the shadows of the night
I will be your light.
Come and rest in me.

Refrain

Do not be afraid, I am with you.
I have called you each by name.
Come and follow me,
I will bring you home;
I love you and you are mine.”

“I am strength for all the despairing,
Healing for the ones who dwell in shame.
All the blind will see,
The lame run free,
And all will know my name.

Refrain

“I am the Word that leads all to freedom,
I am the peace the world cannot give.
I will call your name,
Embracing all your pain.
Stand up, now walk and live!
