

*Trinity Lutheran Church
Brewster, NY*

*All Saints Sunday
November 5, 2023
9:30 AM*

WELCOME as we gather in the name of God! Whether we are physically present with one another or gathering remotely, we know that Christ is truly present in our midst.

We welcome our visitors today. If you are looking for a church home and want to know more about living together as Christians, please contact Pastor Boyd during the week.

If you know of others who are in need of signs of God's love and grace, who are curious and/or questioning, who would like to experience the peace of Christ – please invite them to join us for worship in person or through our social media channels. They may also contact the church office (trinlutheranoffice@yahoo.com) and/or Pastor Jen (revjedyer1@yahoo.com).

You are invited to worship with us each week. There is a spoken in-person service on Thursdays at 12 noon and on Sundays at 9:30 a.m. as well as via Facebook Live on Trinity's Facebook page. Services may also be viewed on Comcast channel 21 at 11 am (note, they are a week behind). The service will be posted later on our YouTube page. The weekly bulletin is posted on our website:

PARENTS: Please help your children follow the worship service, including standing up with the assembly. Thank you.

The order for worship is Evangelical Lutheran Worship (ELW), Setting 10. The complete order for worship is printed in this worship folder. Congregational responses are in bold. If you require an enlarged print bulletin or an assistive listening device, please ask an usher. Copyright material used by permission of Augsburg Fortress under license SBL14214 and #SBL14215.

INTRODUCTION

The prophet Elijah goes toe to toe with King Ahab and Queen Jezebel by proposing a contest to determine not just who is greater, but who is actually real: Ba'al or God. The result? God is the real deal.

CALL TO WORSHIP for All Saints Day AND CANDLE LIGHTING

O God, our help in ages past and our hope for years to come: We give you thanks for all your faithful people who have followed the light of your word throughout the centuries into our time and place.

We remember, O God...

The countless saints of history who have blazed a trail of courage through time,

We remember, O God...

The tender touch of loved ones,
the healing words of comforters,
the remarkable acts of fearless ones.

We remember, O God...

The gentle strength of grandparents,
the loyalty of friends,
the kindness of strangers,
the joy of children,
the sacrifice of parents.

We remember, O God...

The supreme love of Jesus,
the blessing of his Spirit,
the reminder of his words,

the sharing of his suffering,
the glory of his resurrection:
all shown forth in the lives of his disciples,
young and old,
dead and living,
articulate and silent,
strange and familiar,
brilliant and ordinary.

The assembly may be seated as individual names are read. You may also speak aloud additional names. Worshippers are invited to light candles provided in memory of a loved one. The following hymn to be sung during the lighting

HYMN “Lord, listen to your children praying” ELW 752

Lord, listen to your children praying
Lord, send your Spirit in this place
Lord, listen to your children praying
Send us love, send us power, send us grace

The assembly stands

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the merciful grace and steadfast love of Christ the Lord.
Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us worship God with joy!

GATHERING HYMN: For All the Saints ELW 422

For all the saints who from their labors rest, who thee by faith before the world confessed,
thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might;
thou, Lord, their captain in the well-fought fight;
thou, in the darkness drear, their one true light.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine,
we feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all are thine.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant triumph song,
and hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
soon, soon to faithful servants cometh rest;
sweet is the calm of paradise the blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

But then there breaks a yet more glorious day:
the saints triumphant rise in bright array;
the King of glory passes on his way.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast, through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

HYMN OF PRAISE: Praise Ye the Lord #872 (vs. 1 & 3)

Refrain

Praise ye the Lord, hallelujah!

Ev'rybody, praise the Lord.

Praise God with the sound of the trumpet;
Praise God with the lute and the harp;
Praise God with the timbrel and dancing;
Praise God wherever you are.

Refrain

Praise God in the holy temple;
Praise God for almighty deeds;
Praise God for those bountiful mercies;
For God fulfills our needs.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Remind us who we are, O God.

Remind us today of the story you are still telling,
and our place in it.

Remind us that in times of division we still are one with your people through the ages and today.

Give us a glimpse of the great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, that we might be strengthened to hold fast to your way.

In the midst of so many voices and stories competing for our allegiance,

remind us who we are,
and to whom we belong. Amen.

CHILDREN'S SONG: Love, Love, Love.... That's What It's All About

"Love, love, love

That's what it's all about.

'Cause God loves us we love each other

Mother, Father, Sister, Brother

Everybody sing and shout!

'Cause that's what it's all about.
It's about love, love, love.
It's about love, love, love."

Peace, peace, peace...
Joy, joy, joy

+ WORD +

READING: I Kings 18:17-39

Narrator: When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, "Is it you, you troubler of Israel?" He answered, Elijah: "I have not troubled Israel; but you have, and your father's house, because you have forsaken the commandments of the Lord and followed the Baals. Now therefore have all Israel assemble for me at Mount Carmel, with the four hundred fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

Narrator: So Ahab sent to all the Israelites, and assembled the prophets at Mount Carmel. Elijah then came near to all the people, and said, Elijah: "How long will you go limping with two different opinions? If the Lord is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him."

Narrator: The people did not answer him a word. Then Elijah said to the people, Elijah: "I, even I only, am left a prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets number four hundred fifty. Let two bulls be given to us; let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it; I will prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood, but put no fire to it. Then you call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the Lord; the god who answers by fire is indeed God."

Narrator: All the people answered,

People: "Well spoken!"

Narrator: Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal,

Elijah: “Choose for yourselves one bull and prepare it first, for you are many; then call on the name of your god, but put no fire to it.”

Narrator: So they took the bull that was given them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, crying,

Prophets: “O Baal, answer us!”

Narrator: But there was no voice, and no answer. They limped about the altar that they had made. At noon Elijah mocked them, saying,

Elijah: “Cry aloud! Surely he is a god; either he is meditating, or he has wandered away, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he is asleep and must be awakened.”

Narrator: Then they cried aloud and, as was their custom, they cut themselves with swords and lances until the blood gushed out over them. As midday passed, they raved on until the time of the offering of the oblation, but there was no voice, no answer, and no response. Then Elijah said to all the people,

Elijah: “Come closer to me”;

Narrator: and all the people came closer to him. First he repaired the altar of the Lord that had been thrown down; Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the Lord came, saying, “Israel shall be your name”; with the stones he built an altar in the name of the Lord. Then he made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two measures of seed. Next he put the wood in order, cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said,

Elijah: “Fill four jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood. And again, do it a second time”;

Narrator: and they did it a second time. Again he said,

Elijah: “Do it a third time”;

Narrator: and they did it a third time, so that the water ran all around the altar, and filled the trench also with water. At the time of the offering of the oblation, the prophet Elijah came near and said,

Elijah: “O Lord, God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your bidding. Answer me, O Lord, answer me, so that this people may know that you, O Lord, are God, and that you have turned their hearts back.”

Narrator: Then the fire of the Lord fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones, and the dust, and even licked up the water that was in the trench. When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces and said,

People: “The Lord indeed is God; the Lord indeed is God.”

GOSPEL: Mark 9:2-4

The Holy Gospel according to Mark the 9th chapter.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus.

HYMN OF THE DAY: Faith of Our Fathers ELW 813

Faith of our fathers, living still In spite of dungeon, fire and sword.
Oh, how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word.
Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to you till death.

Faith of our mothers, daring faith,
Your work for Christ is love revealed,
Spreading God's word from pole to pole,
Making love known and freedom real.
Faith of our mothers, holy faith,
We will be true to you till death.

Faith of our sisters, brothers too,
Who still must bear oppression's might,
Raising on high, in prisons dark,
The cross of Christ still burning bright.
Faith for today, O living faith,
We will be true to you till death.

Faith born of God, oh, call us yet,
Bind us with all who follow you,
Sharing the struggle of your cross
Until the world is made anew.
Faith born of God, O living faith,
We will be true to you till death.

NICENE CREED

With the whole church, let us confess our faith.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
He suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Confident in the gracious and ever-widening mercy of God, let us pray for the world, the body of Christ, and all who yearn for wholeness of life.

A brief silence.

God of power and might,
the world could use a big miracle.

The kind where even though everything seems impossible, you show up and draw us all near and everyone sees,
and things finally change after all this time we've waited.

We could use a big miracle, O God.

For the planet groans and cracks, burns and drowns, suffocating under our weight.

The people you call our neighbors look for shelter, warmth, food, and clean water, yet your abundance seems in short supply in some places.

Everywhere we look, violence seems the first choice,

And so we raise our voices crying out in prayer

We pause to pray especially for those we name now, aloud or in our hearts.... (pause). We also lift up in prayer Thomas, Morgan, Pamela, Tom, Karen, Tyler, Brian, Dennis, Megan, Steve and Sara and for those who have no one to name them and those who do not know Christ's name.

We call on you and beg you to reveal yourself, to come with power and bring peace, hope, and compassion.
And we ask for eyes and hearts to see when you come in ways we did not expect,
in whispers and sighs,
in hands reaching out and choices offered,
in beauty that is easy to overlook, in companionship and courage we never expected to find.
Though we wish for big displays,
we thank you for small ones,
reminders that we are not alone,
that your presence makes another world possible.

Here other petitions may be offered silently, aloud or online in the comments.

Pastor: And so in faith and hope, we draw near to you, with nothing but our prayers to offer, trusting your grace will be enough for all the burdens we carry. In your powerful and holy name, Jesus our Savior and Messiah, we pray. Amen.

SHARING OF PEACE

You are invited to share a sign of peace with others. Please check with those around you if they are comfortable with a handshake, elbow bump or other physical signs before reaching out. Peace signs and humble bows are a healthy alternative.

The peace of Christ be with you always!
And also with you

OFFERING PRAYER

Holy God, as you used Elijah’s offering a sign of your power, so employ the gifts we bring in service to our neighbors and the whole of creation, that all might proclaim your goodness and mercy throughout the world. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

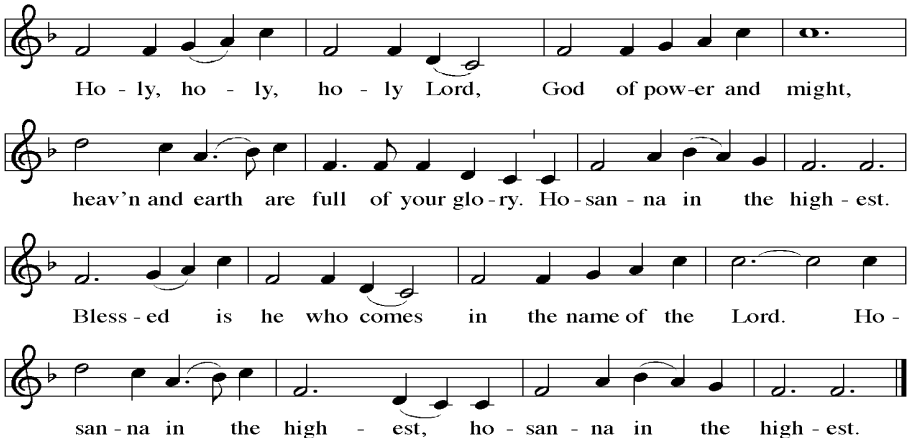

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise for the praise of Jesus' name. Amen.

PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior Jesus Christ. By the witness of the saints you show us the hope of our calling and strengthen us to run the race set before us, that we might delight in your mercy and rejoice with them in glory. And so, with all the saints, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven joining their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho-san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God.

You are most holy, and great is the majesty of your glory.

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son,

So that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life

We give you thanks for Christ's coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will

And to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed...do this in remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Remembering, therefore, his salutary command, his life-giving passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension and the promise to come again,

We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, not as we ought but as we are able;

We ask you mercifully to accept our praise and thanksgiving

And with your Word and Holy Spirit to bless us, your servants and these your gifts of bread and wine,

So that we and all who share in the body and blood of Christ may be filled with heavenly blessing and grace,

And receiving the forgiveness of sin,

may be formed to live as your holy people and be given our inheritance with all your saints

To you, O God, O Living One, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy church, now and forever.

Amen.

Blessed by God's loving grace and empowered by the Holy Spirit, we are bold to pray...

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread;
 and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us;
 and lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 forever and ever. Amen

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

The God whose power consumed Elijah’s offering also raised Christ Jesus from the dead, destroying death forever. God, in Jesus, invites you now to feast on bread and wine in remembrance of the resurrected one. Come, for all is prepared. Thanks be to God!

MUSIC NOTES:

Elijah, Op. 70, is an oratorio by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy depicting events in the life of the Prophet Elijah as told in the books 1 Kings and 2 Kings of the Old Testament. It premiered on 26 August 1846. This piece was composed in the spirit of Mendelssohn's Baroque predecessors Bach and Handel, whose music he greatly admired. In 1829 Mendelssohn had organized the first performance of Bach's St Matthew Passion since the composer's death and was instrumental in bringing this and other Bach works to widespread popularity. By contrast, Handel's oratorios never went out of fashion in England. Mendelssohn prepared a scholarly edition of some of Handel's oratorios for publication in London. Elijah is modelled on the oratorios of these two Baroque masters; however, in its lyricism and use of orchestral and choral color the style clearly reflects Mendelssohn's own genius as an early Romantic composer
