INTRODUCTION:

Reminding the Israelites of the goodness of God, Joel called his people to genuine repentance, to which God responded with the revelation of the Day of the Lord when God's Spirit would fill all people. God's vision can shift the hearts of a community willing to be transformed.

+ GATHER +

Prelude: "Shepherd Me, O God" by Marty Haugen

We invite you to take a time of prayer during the prelude. We look to focus our hearts and minds on God, seeking God's spirit to infuse our time of worship and this community of faith. This is the first day of the week and we long to be reminded of who we are in Christ Jesus. If you need particular prayers to help center you in this time, you can use any of the hymns as well as prayers that are listed in the hymnal (pg. 72-87)

Welcome and Announcements

You are invited to share any prayer requests that you would like Pastor Jen to include in this morning's worship. If you would like someone to be put on our weekly prayer list in the Trinity weekly, please fill out a prayer list request form found in the pew rack. Place it in the offering plate or give to Pastor Jen following worship.

THE ASSEMBLY STANDS

CALL TO WORSHIP

We are waiting and waiting, longing for God to appear.

Even now, we seek with all our hearts trusting that God's promise is true.

Our hope is sometimes fragile

but a spark is enough for God to work with.

Look! The light shines.

We will trust the Holy One who draws us on to peace.

CONFESSION

We gather in God's holy presence, aware of the ways in which we have not lived into the image of God in which we are created. So, we take this opportunity to confess our sins seeking restoration in our relationship with God, one another, ourselves and the world

Silence for reflection and self-examination

You are a God of possibility, promising a future we can't yet imagine, calling us forward when we are paralyzed by our fear.

We hardly know how to hope because all we see is loss, and hurt, and to-do lists, and expectations, and worries, and not-enough.

Sound your trumpet today,
and draw our eyes out and up, draw our hearts near to you, that we might be held safe while we come undone.

For we confess we have tried to hold it together, O God, instead of acknowledging our part in the problem.

We admit we have gone round in circles trying to figure out what to do, but we have not yet simply torn open our hearts and cried out to you, without also advising you on how to solve it for us.

We would rather sink in despair than let go of our desire for control and power and more.

Yet even now, you promise it is not too late — though we may think there's no hope.

Yet even now, you hold our torn hearts with compassion.

Yet even now, you promise restoration we don't even know how to long for.

Even now, your peace is on its way.

Not a simple easy peace,
not a painless peace, but peace beyond understanding will be born, even now.

So we beg for your forgiveness today, your healing, your Spirit poured out that we might be ready when your day of peace arrives, however dimly it may seem to shine now.

We ask in the name of the coming Prince of Peace, Jesus the Christ.

Amen.

WORDS OF FORGIVENESS

Friends hear and believe this good news: God's Spirit is poured out on all flesh, no exceptions. In your very breath is the love and vision and promise of God-with-us, and the peace that passes all understanding is for you, for us, for the world. Receive God's steadfast love and grace revealed through the Father, and the +Son and the Holy Spirit. _Thanks be to God. Amen.

GATHERING HYMN: Awake! Awake, and Greet the New Morn ELW 242

Awake! Awake, and greet the new morn, for angels herald its dawning.
Sing out your joy, for soon he is born, behold! the Child of our longing.
Come as a baby weak and poor,
to bring all hearts together, he opens wide the heav'nly door and lives now inside us forever.

To us, to all in sorrow and fear, Emmanuel comes a-singing, his humble song is quiet and near,
yet fills the earth with its ringing;
music to heal the broken soul and hymns of lovingkindness, the thunder of his anthems roll to shatter all hatred and blindness.

In darkest night his coming shall be,
when all the world is despairing, as morning light so quiet and free,
so warm and gentle and caring.
Then shall the mute break forth in song,
the lame shall leap in wonder,
the weak be raised above the strong,
and weapons be broken asunder.

Rejoice, rejoice, take heart in the night, though dark the winter and cheerless,
the rising sun shall crown you with light, be strong and loving and fearless.
Love be our song and love our prayer and love our endless story; may God fill ev'ry day we share and bring us at last into glory.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH – Peace

God, we are longing for a silent night—

For a reprieve

From noise and anxiety and hurry;

For a moment

Of space and time, empty yet full.

Gift us the gift of quiet.

This is the peace:

Of baby's breath,

Of feathered wing,

Of rustling leaf,

Of sphere's turn,

Of light beam.

The heavenly peace in which we long to rest,

To sweetly sleep

In safety and freedom,

In certainty and repose.

We can smell the peace

Coming on the wind.

We can feel the peace

Arriving with the morning.

We can taste the peace

In the bread and cup.

We look in your direction, God

The Place from which peace comes;

For you are its author and the home of its Prince,

And in your peace we dwell. Amen”

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel

Shall come to you, O Israel

+ WORD +

READING: Joel 2:12-13, 28-29

Yet even now, says the Lord, return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;
rend your hearts and not your clothing.

Return to the Lord, your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and relents from punishing.

Then afterwards

I will pour out my spirit on all flesh;
your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams,
and your young men shall see visions.

Even on the male and female slaves,
in those days, I will pour out my spirit.

Word of God; Word of Life

Thanks be to God

THE ASSEMBLY STANDS

HYMN OF THE DAY: Spirit of Gentleness ELW 396

Refrain

Spirit, Spirit of gentleness, Blow through the wilderness calling and free;
Spirit, Spirit of restlessness,
Stir me from placidness, wind, wind on the sea.

You moved on the waters, you called to the deep,
Then you coaxed up the mountains from the valleys of sleep;
And over the eons you called to each thing:
“Awake from your slumbers and rise on your wings.”

You swept through the desert, you stung with the sand,
And you goaded your people with a law and a land;
And when they were blinded with idols and lies,
Then you spoke through your prophets to open their eyes.

You sang in a stable, you cried from a hill,
Then you whispered in silence when the whole world was still;
And down in the city you called once again,
When you blew through your people on the rush of the wind.

You call from tomorrow, you break ancient schemes.
From the bondage of sorrow all the captives dream dreams;
Our women see visions, our men clear their eyes.
With bold new decisions your people arise.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

We pray for the church, the world, and all of creation, trusting in your gracious love and care.

A brief silence.

We pray for the outpouring of your Spirit on all peoples. Grant us the wisdom to follow you each and every day, on the path you have set before us. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for change and conviction in how we care for creation. Open our eyes to the interconnectedness of all living things and help us to live more sustainably. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for ethical and compassionate leadership around the world. Help leaders to focus on the needs of the most vulnerable and guide them to champion policies that promote equity and opportunity for all. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for healing for all in need. May we provide support and comfort for those in our care, and may you draw near to all who cry out to you. We pause to pray especially for those we name now, aloud or in our hearts.... (pause). We also lift up in prayer: Lois, Madeline, Carole, Peter, Kate, Martin, Kyle, Anna, Joan, Steve, Sara, Lucia and Nicole and for those who have no one to name them and those who do not know Christ's name. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for all who are facing injustice. Help us to see situations from the perspectives of those most affected, and to advocate for solutions addressing the root causes of injustice. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray to honor the saints who have gone before us. Even as we grieve their loss, may we be grateful for the time we shared with them in this life. God, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Here other petitions may be offered silently, aloud or online in the comments.

Pastor: We humbly offer up all these prayers before you, trusting in your steadfast love and grace revealed through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PREFACE

It is indeed our right, responsibility and joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Savior, Jesus Christ. You comforted your people with the promise of a Redeemer, through whom you will also make all things new in the day when he comes to judge the world in righteousness. And so, with all the choirs of angels, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, Holy, Holy

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, Lord God of pow'r and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

Holy One, the beginning and the end, the giver of life:

Blessed are you for the birth of creation.

Blessed are you in the darkness, the shadows, and in the light.

Blessed are you for your promise to your people.

Blessed are you in the prophets' hope and dreams.

Blessed are you for Mary's openness to your will.

Blessed are you for your Son Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh who in the night...do this in remembrance of me

With this bread and cup we remember your Word dwelling among us, full of grace and truth.

We remember our new birth in his death and resurrection.

We look with hope for his coming.

Come, Lord Jesus

Holy God, we long for your Spirit.

Come among us. Bless this meal.

May your Word take flesh in us.

Awaken your people, fill us with your light.

Bring the gift of peace on earth

Come, Holy Spirit

All praise and glory are yours, Holy One of Israel,

Word of God incarnate,

Power of the Most High, one God, now and forever. Amen

We pray with and for all people, joining in the prayer Christ taught, saying...

LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name,

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,

On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive those who trespass,

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,

And the glory, forever and ever.

Amen
