COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS:

Last week at our Annual meeting, we talked about the ways in which we might connect both within this faith community as well as in the wider community. Under the banner of similar interests, we began a few sign ups. If you are interested in participating or want to learn more about them, watch for a new bulletin board. The areas of interest are: Gardening, Book club, Hiking, learning to crochet or knit and a Family retreat at Koinonia.

LUTHERANS RESPOND: In light of all the changes that have begun in our country, our church leaders have responded. Here are a few of the current statements:

ELCA Presiding Bishop Elizabeth Eaton:

WORSHIP ASSISTANTS:

Are you interested in serving as an usher and/or as a communion assistant/reader? Or would you like more information? See Pastor Jen.

OFFICE MANAGER:

our current manager is retiring at the end of January and we will be interviewing for a new one. If you know of anyone who is looking for part time work (15-20 hours a week), please have them send their resume to Pastor Jen as soon as possible. They need to have a working knowledge of Microsoft Word, Publisher and Excel.

YARN GROUP:

will meet again on Monday, February 10th at 1pm (upstairs in Fellowship Hall). Bring your current project to work on and share time with one another about the ways in which we might use our crafts to help others.

PRAYER SHAWLS:

we are blessed by the gifts of our crafters and have many prayer shawls available to share with others. You are invited to take them to give to those going through times of transition - joyous (birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, retirements, etc.) or difficult (health issues, death, unemployment, other stressful situations). There are prayer cards for many of these situations to accompany them.

CHANGE IN RECYCLING POLICY:

We will not be collecting bottles, cans or any other items for recycling at this time.

CALLED TO COMMUNITY: THE LIFE THAT JESUS WANTS FOR HIS PEOPLE

(ed. Charles E. Moore) - we are beginning this conversation around this book throughout the coming year. For more information, see Pastor Jen
